

Didgeridoo Links

Links to didge and didgeridoo related websites, plus a few other personal favourites.

These days many people have websites for their business, hobby or passion and the didgeridoo is no exception. I have come across many fabulous websites about the didge and divided them into (hopefully) logical sections to make it easier to scan through. They are all sites I am familiar with with many being run by friends I have made in the didgeridoo fraternity.

Performers and Bands

Dyframix

Dyframix is a progressive alternative ethnotechno duo strongly influenced by the deeply spiritual and esoteric Didgeridoo. Nick Burman aka The Burmanator brings years of experience playing the didgeridoo and entwines it with the musical expertise of multi-instrumentalist Stef M.

Visit website...>>

Charlie McMahon - Rhythmorganizm

Over a number of years Charlie McMahaon has been at the forefront of promoting the didgeridoo not only as a player but as inventor/creator of the 'Didjbone' and 'Facebass', playing and performing right across the globe.

Visit website...>>

Kyle Maplesden - Kdidj

Dealing directly with Arnhem Land communities and respected dealers kdidj endeavour to provide authentic Aboriginal instruments of the highest cultural integrity. Known for his understanding of traditional Aboriginal culture, Kyle continues to learn from his Aboriginal friends and to share his experiences with others.

Visit website...>>

Markus Meurer

One of the foremost exponents of contemporary didgeridoo in Europe, Markus Meurer is highly regarded as player having performed at numerous festivals and events. Check out some of the videos of Markus performing on YouTube.

Visit website...>>

Ganga Giri

"Ganga Giri is a wonderful musician. I first heard him at a Womad festival, and loved the mix of his ancient and primitive instrument with a wide range of great dance grooves. Ganga is really taking the didjeridu to places it has never been before and developing a unique style of music". Peter Gabriel, Real World Records.

Visit website...>>

Wild Marmalade

Wild Marmalade are a High-Energy Organic Trance, Drum and Didj band based in Byron Bay, Australia. Playing "totally live" with ferocious intensity, they create inspired organic dance music, without the use of any electronic machines. Blending the ancient sounds of the didgeridoo with contemporary dance beats, their sound is a meeting of Didge Si's rhythmic didgeridu playing, combined with the explosive grooves of Matt Goodwin on drum kit.

Visit website...>>

Traditional and Culture

Francis Firebrace

The Wirriggan Man - master aboriginal storyteller, inspirational speaker, passionate humanitarian, entertainer and artist of the Yorta Yorta people. Francis combines story, art, dance and philosophy into a powerful performance of the oldest known culture on earth.

Visit website...>>

White Cockatoo Performing Group

From Arnhem Land in the Northern Territory of Australia. The artists are a group of senior Aboriginal men from the Mialili, Guningu, Rembarrnga, and Burrara language groups, who share the same social and family affiliations. Their corroboree (music, song and dance) is a part of one of the earth's oldest unbroken artistic traditions, and their country is the traditional birthplace and home of the Australian Aboriginal musical instrument the Didgeridoo. The men are the exponents of fine 'classical' aboriginal music and dance.

Visit website...>>

Djalu Gurruwiwi

"Ripangu Yirdaki is the name of my enterprise. 'Ripangu' means lightning and all that lightning represents - it is a powerful symbol of my Galpu clan and, as lightning, I am strong and I do not fear anything". Please come and explore with me the world of yirdaki - do not be afraid, but come in peace and honour and you will discover something you don't know. Whilst I am the central figure in this enterprise, other members of my family are also involved in various aspects of production, administration, and sales. In other words, this is a family-run business.

Djalu.com

Visit website...>>

Manikay.com

This website is dedicated to the Aboriginal peoples of Arnhem Land whose musical and artistic genius are world-renowned. While the focus of this website is traditional music from Arnhem Land, some items on the fringe of the territory as it is commonly defined are included.

MANIKAY.COM

For the promotion and enjoyment of traditional Arnhem Land music

Visit website...>>

Yirrkala.com - Buku-Larrnggay Mulka Centre

"This is letting you know so you will learn from us. Learn from these words like we have learnt from you. Your knowledge, your education, your background, we are using it. Some of the law and some of the culture of yours. OK and in the same way you must learn..."Djambawa Marawili, Senior Artist & Madarrpa clan leader.

BUKU-LARRNGGAY MULKA CENTRE

Visit website...>>

Yothu Yindi

Yothu Yindi hail from the Yolngu (Aboriginal) homelands on the north-east coast of Australia's Northern Territory, a country the Yolngu have occupied and protected for perhaps 40,000 years or more. The Yolngu members of the band celebrate their deep spiritual connections with the land, connections that are kept alive through song and dance and ceremony, public aspects of which are found within the band's recordings and live performances.

YOTHU YINDI

Visit website...>>

Ten Canoes

One hundred and fifty spears, ten canoes, three wives...trouble. Ten Canoes is a story and a film. Captivating and fascinating the best way to understand where the film's coming from is to watch it!

One hundred and fifty spears, ten canoes, three wives...trouble.

TEN CANOES

A FILM BY ROLF DE HEER AND THE PEOPLE OF RAINING-NING

Visit website...>>

Vibe Australia

Vibe Australia has an extensive history of working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australia at local, state and national levels. Vibe is an Aboriginal media and events company with a suite of fully integrated communication products much utilised and enjoyed by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities across Australia.

Visit website...>>

AIATSIS

The Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies (AIATSIS) is the world's premier institution for information and research about the cultures and lifestyles of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Its activities affirm and raise awareness among all Australians, and people of other nations, of the richness and diversity of Australian Indigenous cultures and histories.

Visit website...>>

ENIAR.org

Promoting awareness on indigenous issues and to provide information for Indigenous Australians about Europe and international organisations. ENIAR is not affiliated to any government or commercial bodies, is non profit- making and run entirely by volunteers.

Visit website...>>

Makers

The Natty Shed

Ant Scott is reknowned for making high quality hardwood didgeridoos and has built up a wealth of knowledge and experience over the years, and more than any other contemporary didge maker I have met he knows what he is doing! I have learnt an immense amount from Ant since starting out - nice one Ant keep it going.

Visit website...>>

Didge Tall Paul

Tall Paul makes didgeridoos and sells them alongside a number of other musical instruments. Tall Paul can be found at a number of festivals and events throughout the year where he not only sells his didges but also holds practical demonstrations.

Visit website...>>

Eddy Halat

Eddy individually crafts his didgeridoos to a high standard both in quality of finish and quality of sound, with beautiful carvings and artwork which is second to none. When starting out making didges I was incredibly inspired by Eddy's work. Eddy individually crafts his didgeridoos to a high standard both in quality of finish and quality of sound, with beautiful carvings and artwork which is second to none. When starting out making didges I was incredibly inspired by Eddy's work.

Visit website...>>

Earth Pulse

High quality, hand crafted didgeridoos from Australia. Their range includes hand crafted wood furniture and artistic decorative pieces.

Visit website...>>

Retailers and Dealers

Sound for Health

Lots of wonderful and rare world / ethnic instruments for sale along with DVDs, books, CDs, didgeridoo lessons, didgeridoo performance, corporate training & fun days, school visits, etc. Jonny Cope is a professional player, didgeridoo teacher, best-selling author, and qualified sound practitioner.

Visit website...>>

Aboriginal Arts

Passionate about authentic Aboriginal Art and Artefacts, only the highest quality, carefully selected, genuine items, supplying each customer with signed Certificates of Authenticity and offering a full 100% refund policy.

Visit website...>>

Didgeridoo Breath

Australian didgeridoo and aboriginal art specialist. Learning to play has never been easier with a great instructional 5CD set plus accompanying DVD.

Visit website...>>

Forums and Discussion Groups

Worldwide Didgeridoo Network

A new network to the didge scene, the Worldwide Didgeridoo Network, already with over 200 members from around the globe. Great networking for didge makers, players and enthusiasts, highly recommended.

Visit website...>>

Serious Sticks

One of the best didgeridoo forums around plus instruments for sale. All the instruments at Serious Sticks are entirely made by Aborigines whose tribes have the didgeridu as part of their cultural tradition. They import direct to Switzerland from Aboriginal communities.

Instruments are chosen individually for their sound, playability and artistic merit.

Visit website...>>

Yahoo Groups - didjuk_discus

This is the Didjeridu UK Discussion list - for everyone to chat about didjeridus, didj events, workshops, ideas, thoughts and anything didj-related. Open to beginners and old hands alike!

Visit website...>>

General

Pied Piper Pianos

Pied Piper Pianos based in Howarth, West Yorkshire works with a range of instruments, from the piano to didgeridoo, including a keen interest in sound healing and tuition.

Visit website...>>

Ed Drury's Didgeridoo Page

Ed Drury has compiled a mass of information over a number of years including interviews with players, makers and others, as well as notes on how to play. A veritable wealth of information and I especially recommend the Portland Newsletter - it is jammed full of stuff.

Visit website...>>

Didgeplanet Didgeridoo Blog

Didgeplanet has alot of inforamtion, articles, blogs about practically anything to do with the didgeridoo. Sporting an RSS feed so you can keep updated with the latest bits and bobs.

Visit website...>>

UNSW Didgeridoo Acoustics

University of New South Wales (UNSW) has made available a large amount of information relating to the acoustics and physics of the didgeridoo.

This site is extremely informative especially for people wanting to make their own instrument. It can be quite technical in parts though is supported with diagrams for those (like me) that don't understand all the fiddly bits of physics.

Visit website...>>

Personal

Didgeridoo Pete

Pete organises the Singing Sticks Festival in Northampton. He is enthusiastic about the whole didge scene and has a lot of info on his web site. He offers tuition, workshops, and performances at events amongst other things.

Visit website...>>

John Brice

John has been playing and performing with the didgeridoo for a number of years and has released several CD's. He is part of the group Jongami and aside from having didgeridoos for sale (including the 'Feedback' Didgeridoo) there is information on playing, clubs and events.

Visit website...>>

Back to top of page..>>

Back to Main Didgeridoo Index...>>

